

Financial Stocks

- One very nice gift, and not too expensive, is to give stock or savings bonds. It adds a personal touch to the monetary gift!
- When it comes to kids, owning real shares makes them feel truly like an adult, as part owner of their favorite company. It is a good way to introduce children to the power of ownership.

- OneShare.com is the place to look for stocks of America's favorite companies.

- {mosimage url=http://www.dpbolvw.net/click-2169340-10364725?url=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.oneshare.com%2FStock.aspx%3Fgiftid%3D10140}Choose a share in a company that relates to the person's areas of interest and hobbies. Here are a few examples:

- Disney Stock - to the kid who does not stop watching "Lion King".

- A person who loves computers (or the next Bill Gates!) should get real Microsoft stock.

- Harley Davidson stock for the cool ones!

- Sony share goes to the television fans.

- Reach the stars with real share of Orbital Sciences Stock.

- Tiffany & Co. share to a person who appreciates jewelry.

- And more and more. See the list of all shares.
- {mosimage url=http://www.dpbolvw.net/click-2169340-10364725}Got the idea?